High redshift groups in photometric surveys

+ galaxy properties therein

How did galaxy in clusters quenched over cosmic time ?

At $z < 1$: most galaxies in clusters are quenched — effect of environment

Study how the fraction of quenched galaxies depends on redshift and galaxy stellar-mass in groups at $z > 1$